Re: CERCLA 104(e) Information Requests to S. Francis Baldwin.

Dear Mr. Baldwin:

The United States Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") is currently investigating the source, nature, and extent of the release or threatened release of hazardous substances, pollutants, contaminants, or hazardous wastes at the Westlake Landfill in Bridgeton, Missouri ("the site"). This investigation requires inquiry into the (1) identification, nature, and quantity of materials that have been or are generated, treated, stored, or disposed of at, or transported to, the site, and (2) the nature and extent of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant at or from the site. The site is located near the intersection of I-70 and I-270 in Bridgeton, Missouri, which is a suburb of St. Louis, Missouri. The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission ("NRC") has performed investigations at the site which have revealed the presence of hazardous substances (radioactive material) in the soil and groundwater.

Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. 9604(e) ("CERCLA") as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 ("SARA") gives EPA the authority to require any person who has or may have information relevant to materials generated, treated, stored, or disposed of or transported to the site, the nature and extent of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant at or from the site, or the ability of a person to pay for or perform a cleanup of the site to furnish such information to EPA upon reasonable notice. Accordingly, to aid

Dear Ms. Newman:

I received CERCLA 104(e) Requests for Information directed to Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton), Inc. and to West Lake Landfill, Inc., both dated May 14, 1991. I also received a similar 104(e) request for West Lake Quarry and Material Company, West Lake Ready Mix Co. and Rock Road Industries, Inc. (collectively, the "West Lake Companies"), as well as a Request directed to me. Responses to the 104(e) Request for Information directed to me and to the Requests directed to each of the West Lake Companies are being delivered to you simultaneously with this letter.

As indicated in the Response to the Request for Information directed to me, I was the registered agent and Secretary for West Lake Landfill, Inc. prior to the time all the stock in West Lake Landfill, Inc. was purchased by Laidlaw Waste Systems Inc. on July 29, 1988. At such time, I resigned my position as a corporate officer of West Lake Landfill, Inc. Subsequent thereto, West Lake Landfill, Inc. was renamed Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc. Due to the oversight of Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc.'s management or attention of its management to more pressing business, I continue to serve as the registered agent of that entity (despite my suggestion to the management of Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc. that I be removed from such position).

All information requested in the Requests for Information directed to West Lake Landfill, Inc. and Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc. which is known to me has been supplied to your office in my individual Response dated July 18, 1991 and in the Responses of each of the West Lake Companies, also dated July 18, 1991. I, however, have no authority to answer the Request for Information on behalf of Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc. As appropriate, I independently forwarded a copy of the Request for Information directed to West Lake Landfill, Inc. and the Request for Information directed to Laidlaw Waste Systems (Bridgeton) Inc. to Mr. Tom Fowler, Legal Counsel for Laidlaw Waste Systems Inc., 669 Airport Freeway, Suite 400, Hurst, Texas 76053.
